DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN TRUESDALE AND MEMBERS FOX
AND BRAME

Pursuant to a charge filed on March 23, 2000, the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued a complaint on March 30, 2000, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 6-RC-11759 (formerly Case 4-RC-19836). (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint.

On April 25, 2000, the General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On April 26, 2000, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed a response.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

In its answer the Respondent admits its refusal to bargain, but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of the Board's unit determination in the representation proceeding.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941). Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, a New Jersey corporation, has been engaged in the operation of a nursing home at 962 River Avenue, Lakewood, New Jersey. During the 12-month preceding the issuance of the complaint, the Respondent, in conducting its business operations, received gross revenues in excess of $100,000 and purchased and received goods valued in excess of $5000 directly from points outside the State of New Jersey. We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6), and (7) of the Act, and has been a health care institution within the meaning of Section 2(14) of the Act. We also find that the Union has been a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the election held on February 8, 2000, the Union was certified on March 8, 2000, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full-time and regular part-time registered nurses, including staff nurses, charge nurses and director of quality assurance and infection control, employed by Respondent at its Lakewood, New Jersey Nursing Home, excluding office clerical employees, the nursing administrator, assistant nursing administrator, RN supervisors, in-service RNs and unit coordinators, managerial executives and guards, other professional employees and other supervisors as defined in the Act, and all other employees.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

Since March 3, 2000, the Union, by letter, has requested the Respondent to bargain, and, since March 8, 2000, the Respondent has refused. We find that this refusal constitutes an unlawful refusal to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By refusing on and after March 8, 2000, to bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union, and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by the law, we shall construe the initial period of the cer-tification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964); Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965).

ORDER

The National Labor Relations Board orders that the Respondent, Leisure Chateau Care Center, Lakewood, New Jersey, its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall

1. Cease and desist from

(a) Refusing to bargain with Communication Workers of America, AFL-CIO, as the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees in the bargaining unit.

(b) In any like or related manner interfering with, restraining, or coercing employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed them by Section 7 of the Act.

2. Take the following affirmative action necessary to effectuate the policies of the Act.

(a) On request, bargain with the Union as the exclusive representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit on terms and conditions of employment, and if an understanding is reached, embody the understanding in a signed agreement:

All full-time and regular part-time registered nurses, including staff nurses, charge nurses and director of quality assurance and infection control, employed by Respondent at its Lakewood, New Jersey Nursing Home, excluding office clerical employees, the nursing administrator, assistant nursing administrator, RN supervisors, in-service RNs and unit coordinators, managerial executives and guards, other professional employees and other supervisors as defined in the Act, and all other employees.

(b) Within 14 days after service by the Region, post at its facility in Lakewood, New Jersey, copies of the attached notice marked "Appendix."¹ Copies of the notice, on forms provided by the Regional Director for Region 4 after being signed by the Respondent's authorized representative, shall be posted by the Respondent and maintained for 60 consecutive days in conspicuous places including all places where notices to employees are customarily posted. Reasonable steps shall be taken by the Respondent to ensure that the notices are not altered, defaced, or covered by any other material. In the event that, during the pendency of these proceedings, the Respondent has gone out of business or closed the facility involved in these proceedings, the Respondent shall duplicate and mail, at its own expense, a copy of the notice to all current employees and former employees employed by the Respondent at any time since March 8, 2000.

(c) Within 21 days after service by the Region, file with the Regional Director a sworn certification of a responsible official on a form provided by the Region attesting to the steps that the Respondent has taken to comply.

MEMBER BRAME, dissenting.

In the underlying representation proceeding, I dissented from my colleagues' denial of the Employer's request for review of the Regional Director's decision, in which she found that the RN staff nurses are not statutory supervisors. Accordingly, I dissent here from my colleagues' granting the General Counsel's motion for summary judgment and their finding that the Employer violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.¹
